

IMPOSED DEATH 2014

A Conference on Stealth Euthanasia

SATURDAY, MARCH 29, 2014

8 am to 4:30 pm

Urbandale, Iowa

Iowa Right to Life and Pro-life Healthcare Alliance are excited to announce this full-day conference hosting a line-up of exceptional speakers covering a wide range of end-of-life topics.

Alex Schadenberg, Executive Director, Euthanasia Prevention Coalition, will be discussing the world-wide perspective of imposed death from Holland and the Netherlands to what is happening here in our own neighborhoods. He will help us understand how the “the-right-to-die” movement has brought us to this point and where we’re going from here, if it continues unchecked. Mr. Schadenberg is an expert on assisted suicide and euthanasia around the globe.

Cristen M. Krebs, DNP, ANP-BC, Catholic Hospice Founder / Executive Director, is a graduate of Robert Morris University’s Doctor of Nursing Practice Program with twenty years of end-of-life care experience. After several years in the field of hospice nursing, Dr. Krebs became disheartened with the trend of hospices becoming more business oriented than patient focused. Concerned that direct patient care was being compromised, in 1997, Dr. Krebs began the first faith-based, nonprofit hospice program serving Pittsburgh and surrounding counties. In May 2007, she incorporated Catholic Hospice, the only pro-life, non-profit hospice in Pittsburgh. Catholic Hospice embraces the Vatican’s Declaration on Euthanasia, encouraging all faiths to uphold the teachings of the church when caring for those experiencing terminal illness.

Julie Grimstad, LPN, is founder and Executive Director of Life is Worth Living, Inc., chair of the Pro-life Healthcare Alliance, a committee of Human Life Alliance (HLA), and is on the HLA board of advisors.

Julie addresses all aspects of medical decision-making and patient advocacy.

She has served as a volunteer patient advocate for 28 years. Julie was director of the Center for the Rights of the Terminally Ill for 18 years. Julie edits and is a contributing writer to Imposed Death: Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide, and The Healthcare Handbook, both Human Life Alliance educational supplements available at www.humanlife.org

Julie resides in Bedford, TX with her husband William and is the mother of five living children and two in heaven, grandmother of nine and great grandmother of one.

Mary Kellett, founder and president of Prenatal Partners for Life will discuss infant euthanasia and hospice. She will share her experience, knowledge and expertise in working with healthcare providers involved in caring for children with conditions that put them at risk of being euthanized.
